

Job Posting

Position: County Highway Engineer
Department: Madison County Highway Department
Job Category: PAT
Hours: Varied FLSA: Exempt Status: Full-time

The incumbent serves as the County Highway Engineer, who is responsible for directing all public works projects as prescribed by statute.

Through knowledge and ability to use accepted accounting and engineering principles and practices, and the knowledge of county government budgeting and taxing procedures.

A baccalaureate degree in engineering or equivalent training and experience will lead to a thorough understanding of engineering principles, methods, theories, and procedures.

Ability to direct and supervise others and provide leadership for employees, and effectively communicate with contractors, consultants, citizens, community leaders, and city, state, and federal officials during varied situations and circumstances.

Must meet all state qualifications requirements.

Prefer a registered engineer licensed by the State of Indiana Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.

Must be INDOT, Employee in Responsible Charge (ERC) certified, or have the ability to be certified through INDOT within 30 calendar days of employment.

Prefer experience in highway engineering.

Must be bondable.

Must be a resident of Indiana.

Salary range is $95,000-$150,000

Benefits: medical, dental, vision, short-term disability, access to health clinics, $25,000 basic life AD&D insurance, retirement, 18 paid holidays, paid sick days, and paid vacation.

Submit resume and 3 employment references to Human Resources,
HR@madisoncounty.in.gov. Position will remain open until filed.

Madison County Government is an Equal Opportunity Employer